Are there any positive aspects of the school that you would like to comment on?

- Sports in school good
- Clubs have improved in the last few years
- Miss Bottle is an excellent teacher and X will miss her when she moves up a year but I'm sure she will get an equally good new teacher
- Behaviour and conduct of the pupils throughout the school has always been impressive. My child does thoroughly enjoy her time in school.
- The extra-curricular provisions are outstanding
- One of my children has struggled with a lot of things and been really helpful and extremely supportive especially Miss Cable and Mrs Allerston.
- My children are enjoying the swimming lessons and the school meals.
- I am always impressed and pleased to see how friendly and nice the teachers are. I know my son likes them a lot which in my opinion is important for his education and development.
- Overall I am really pleased with my daughters education and her experience in school
- My daughter loves coming to school. She enjoys the interaction with the other children and her teachers. I think it is great that she has free school meals and gets a variety of foods. She tells me she loves the home corner painting and drawing.
- Child's teacher is excellent
- PE teacher excellent
- The school praises all of the children's achievements- academic and non-academic achievements outside of school
- All of the different subjects my daughter is learning about broadens her mind and encourages her to learn more and ask questions.
- Swimming pool
- Facilities
- Communications
- The key values
- Communications about events etc. through the newsletter
- The website is informative
- The children enjoy events such as the wow days/exit days
- Always seem to be continuous improvements going on. We find the curriculum both our children have to be engaging and aimed at their ages. Teaching in both classes (Finches and Harriers) are fantastic. Always feel comfortable to approach staff and any issues dealt with very well.
- After school clubs are fantastic
- School is forward thinking- constantly looking for new innovative ideas.
- Newly refurbished pool is marvellous
- Athletics
- Great after school clubs
- Expectations of behaviour and attainment are high

- All staff helpful and approachable. Recently helped with a school trip to Lincoln and the children were all so well behaved and polite. A credit to the school!
- School is always clean and tidy and well organised.
- Very impressed with the range of PE that is offered
- The way values and knowledge is taught is excellent (Robins)
