Learning Together for Life

Monday 7th September 2015

Dear Parents,

As mentioned in the Term One newsletter, we are going to be able to offer children hot meals cooked on our site from the Monday 14th September 2015.

Ordering Information

Week beginning Monday 7th September

Children who returned a hot meal order using the paper menu before the summer holiday will receive a delicious packed lunch. Children are given the choice of sandwich filling on a daily basis. No further orders for this week can be taken.

Week beginning Monday 14th September

Children who returned a hot meal order using the paper menu before the summer holiday will receive what they ordered in Week 3 of the paper menu. No further orders can be taken for this week.

Week beginning Monday 21st September

Orders from the week beginning Monday 21th of September will be made through the Wisepay online ordering service. A letter is attached with your child's unique log in details.

Meals need to be ordered a week in advance so meals for week beginning Monday 21th September need to be ordered by the Monday 14th September. You will be able to order meals 4 weeks in advance.

All meals will need to be ordered through the Wisepay ordering system, even those meals that are free. The school will not automatically order meals for any child. If you do not have access to the internet or need help with the system please speak to the school office who will help you.

To order meals please log onto the schools website (www.marketrasen.lincs.sch.uk) and go to the useful contacts box towards the bottom of the page, click on school Kitchen and then click on the Order a Hot Meal Button.
