Learning Together for Life

Friday 25th September 2015

Dear Parents / Carers,

F.O.S.A Annual General Meeting – Tuesday 29th September at 5.30p.m.

As a parent or guardian of a child at Market Rasen Church of England Primary School, you are automatically a member of the Friends of School Association (F.O.S.A.)

F.O.S.A. is the association that organises many events, which raises funds for our school. All the money raised buys those luxuries that unfortunately the school budget cannot afford. For example, in the past F.O.S.A. have paid for theatre companies to come in to school, helped fund coaches for class trips and purchased the wonderful trim trail we have on our field through fundraising events. F.O.S.A. also subsidise school excursions and pay towards musicians and artists to work with the children.

For F.O.S.A. to run successfully, it needs a dedicated group of people to form a committee. Being an active member of F.O.S.A is a great way of getting to know new people and helping to ensure our children have access to extra-curricular experiences. We are seeking a proactive team, from the chair person to general helpers! If you feel you would like to join the Committee or just simply want to find out more about it with no obligation, please attend the A.G.M. on Tuesday 29th September at 5.30p.m. in the Falcons' classroom. Refreshments will be available. If you are unable to attend the meeting but would like to be considered for a position on the Committee, please return the form attached.

Yours sincerely,

Nichola Allerston
Head of School
