Dear Parents/carers,

As you will have read in your child's weekly homework sheet, we have spent the last few weeks basing our learning around the topic of Christmas and specifically the Polar Express. The children have really enjoyed all of our activities and have worked extremely hard.

The Swallows and Finches would like to end their topic with a pyjama and hot chocolate day just like in the Polar Express. On Monday 19th December, the children can come to school dressed in their pyjamas and in the afternoon enjoy watching a little more of the film and a hot chocolate they have made themselves.

Please consider the weather when choosing what your child will wear as they will still be accessing the outdoor area and going out to play as usual. Warmer pyjamas or an extra layer underneath would be great. Children may bring slippers and dressing gowns if they wish to wear these in the classroom only.

Thank you in advance for your help with this.

Yours sincerely

Miss Fox and Miss Parker
