Midday Supervisory Assistants

As part of our expanding Midday Supervisory Assistant team, we are looking for enthusiastic and motivated individuals to join our team to begin in January 2014 or sooner if possible. The successful candidates will have experience of working with children, preferably in a school setting. The role will involve working as part of a team to carry out duties including: encouraging the children to eat and enjoy their lunch, setting out and clearing away the dining hall, serving hot meals, playground supervision, helping the children to play safely, initiating playground games and activities, classroom supervision during wet playtimes and first aid. In addition, you must enjoy working with children, have a positive manner and be flexible.

The post is for 1 hour daily (Mon – Fri term time only)

Please contact Mrs Katie Taylor Bailey on 01673 842395 for an application pack or e-mail

katie.taylor-bailey@marketrasen.lincs.sch.uk

The closing date for applications is 12.00pm on Friday 5th December 2014 and interviews will be held on the week commencing, Monday 8th December 2014.

Market Rasen Church of England Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and this post will require an enhanced DBS check.
