Monday 24th November 2014

Dear Parents/Carers,

To mark the town’s Christmas celebrations, we have been invited to participate in the singing of Carols in the Market Square and would like to invite as many children as possible to join us, marking the official opening of the event.

The event will take place on Friday 5th December at approximately 6.30pm. The children would need to arrive in the Market Square for 6.15pm to allow us to get organised and they should be finished by around 6.45pm. Parents will need to be present to supervise their children during this time. Children will be required to wear school uniform for the event.

Please complete the slip below to indicate that your child(ren) will be able to represent the school at this exciting event.

We will rehearse the songs at school in preparation for the Christmas celebrations.

Please don’t hesitate to contact us if you have any queries.

Yours Sincerely

Nichola Allerston

Head of School
