Dear Parents/carers,

As you will have read in your child's weekly homework sheet, we have spent the last week basing our learning around the topic of the Polar Express and will shortly be moving onto Christmas. The children have really enjoyed all of our activities and have worked extremely hard.

The Swallows and Finches would like to end their topic with a pyjama and hot chocolate afternoon just like in the Polar Express. On Thursday 13th December, the children can come to school with a bag containing their pyjamas and in the afternoon enjoy watching a little more of the film and a hot chocolate with marshmallows and a biscuit they have made themselves.

Thank you in advance for your help with this.

Yours sincerely

Miss Parker and Mrs Nicholson
