Relief Midday Supervisory Assistants

As part of our expanding Midday Supervisory Assistant team, we are looking for enthusiastic and motivated individuals to join our team to begin in April 2015. The successful candidates will have experience of working with children, preferably in a school setting. The role will involve working as part of a team to carry out duties including: encouraging the children to eat and enjoy their lunch, setting out and clearing away the dining hall, serving hot meals, playground supervision, helping the children to play safely, initiating playground games and activities, classroom supervision during wet playtimes and first aid. In addition, you must enjoy working with children, have a positive manner and be flexible.

The post is to cover one hour daily on a relief basis (Mon – Fri term time only)

Please contact Mrs Katie Taylor Bailey on 01673 842395 for an application pack or e-mail
