Wednesday 15th April 2015

Dear Parents,

As you may have heard, there were two alleged abduction attempts in Market Rasen yesterday.

We have been in touch with Lincolnshire Police several times today and they assure us there is no on-going risk to our pupils. They have informed us that they have a person in custody and are not looking for anyone else in connection to this incident.

Police have asked anyone with any information to contact Lincolnshire Police on the non-emergency number 101 quoting incident 247 of April 14, 2015.

As a school we regularly teach children about all aspects of safety including “stranger danger” and I am sure that parents would feel this is an appropriate time to reinforce this message at home.

Please don't hesitate to contact us should you wish to discuss the content of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Smith
Executive Headteacher
